Course Description	Last year, we had to experience COVID-19 unexpectedly and the whole world has been learning how to manage, fight and survive this unresolved virus until now. From the beginning of COVID-19 spread, South Korea has crafted its own roadmap to make the Korean quarantine model successful which now called “K-quarantine” as a global standard. To get through a period of global uncertainty, South Korea has been trying to create “New Normal” by applying its own perspectives. We invite 16 experts from diverse fields such as Economics, Business, Sociology, Medicine, and Politics. Each week pre-recorded video lectures will be delivered. Students are expected to watch them within that week.
Course Objectives	Students will listen to the 16 experts’ insights and opinions to learn more about COVID-19 and to prepare the post-COVID-19 era.
